

A floor plan diagram showing a large rectangular room labeled 'ROOM 409' with a sub-label '406 SF'. The room has a door on the left wall and a window on the top wall. A dashed line indicates a door swing. To the right of the room is a narrow hallway leading to a set of stairs labeled 'EXISTING STAIR'. The stairs have a railing and a door at the bottom. A small 'UP' arrow is next to the stairs. The drawing uses thick black lines for walls and doors.
